

TRIAL WAS POSTPONED TO MONDAY

Watha Jurors Will Attend Church Services Sunday

JURY UNAPPROACHABLE

Quartered in Suite of Four Rooms With Private Corridor—Friday's Session.

There was no session of the court of common pleas Saturday, and the trial of Montelle Watha went over until Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

Judge Mansfield will spend Sunday with his family in Mansfield, and he was informed before leaving that the sickness in his family was not serious, and the patients were getting better.

Judge Wm. Littleford of Cincinnati, of counsel for defense went to Cincinnati Saturday afternoon and will return Sunday afternoon in order to get a good rest that night so as to be refreshed for his duties on Monday morning.

William H. Miller, assistant attorney general who is assisting in the prosecution will go to Columbus where he will remain over Sunday, returning early Monday morning.

The jury under Bailiff Louis Legge is very comfortably quartered at the Sherwood, where they are given every attention.

The jurors occupy a suite of four rooms with bath attached. The rooms open upon a corridor which connects the four rooms, but this corridor is completely separated from the main hotel corridor. Three doors connect the main corridor with that which serves as entrance to the suite occupied by the jury, and these doors are kept constantly locked day and night by Bailiff Legge, so that the jury is constantly segregated, and absolutely unapproachable by any person or influence from the outside.

After breakfast it is customary to take a walk, before court convenes, but on a morning like Saturday the men were content to stay indoors and chat, tell stories, smoke, and in some cases pine for the wife, children and home, that they will not see until the end of the present trial.

Bailiff Legge this morning went up town and secured checker boards, dominoes and other games to amuse the men and help pass many otherwise lonesome hours.

The jury on Sunday morning, in charge of the bailiff, will attend services at the Second Presbyterian church in a body and hear the discourse of Rev. T. A. Cosgrove, who will in no way refer to the merits of the case of which these auditors are the arbiters. In the evening the jury will hear the sermon of Rev. J. A. Bennett at the Fifth Street Baptist church.

Barbers from Dick Curry's shop in the Arcade, went to the Sherwood shortly after noon Saturday and shaved eleven of the jurors, the twelfth wearing a full beard.

A haberdasher visited the hotel Saturday morning and took orders for collars, neckties, shirts, cuffs and other necessary articles of wearing apparel.

All the members of the jury are in excellent health and seemingly in good spirits, and are greatly pleased with the treatment accorded them by their "jailer," Bailiff Louis Legge, who smokes his calabash pipe, looks

FRIDAY AFTERNOON.

Mr. Fortwangler said he knew every man sent by him to Newark was personally known to him and had done work for him, such as detective work, watchmen and some had also been strike breakers, probably Etherington had been one of the latter. Proper and Hennessy were armed and some of the other men. The guns and cartridges that the men carried were their own personal property; two of the men I would not allow to carry guns, as they were too young and inexperienced; those who did not have guns had blackjacks.

LE BLANC TRIAL NEARING END

Cambridge, Mass., Dec. 10.—Hattie LeBlanc will not take the stand in her own defense. When the trial opened this morning her attorney told the court that she would not testify and that he would close his case this afternoon.

A former servant of Mrs. Glover testified to having seen the latter practicing with a pistol and a man testified Mrs. Glover had offered to make him acquainted with a girl, but he declined because he was married. Dr. Pratt, eye specialist, testified that Hattie's sight was very poor, even in daylight.

MAYOR'S ASSAILANT PROBABLY INSANE

Jersey City, N. J., Dec. 10.—James J. Gallagher, who shot Mayor Gaynor, will probably never be tried for his crime. His hearing is set for December 20 and before then doctors will probably report him insane. He will then be sent to an asylum. Mayor Gaynor is said to favor this disposition of the case.

HON. ATLEE POMERENE WILL SPEAK IN NEWARK NEXT TUESDAY EVENING

Hon. Atlee Pomerene, lieutenant-governor elect, and candidate for senator, will speak in this city Tuesday night.

At an enthusiastic and well attended meeting of the Licking County Democratic club, held at the club rooms in the Canton man to address the Democracy, and this was done immediately. Mr. Pomerene accepting early Saturday morning.

It is probable that the Pomerene meeting will be held at the club rooms on West Main street, although another place may be secured if it is thought that the club rooms will be inadequate to accommodate the crowd.

While Mr. Pomerene was not invited to discuss the senatorial situation, it is possible that he will touch on the matter and endeavor to prove by argument why he should be elected to that exalted position.

FORMER UTICA MAN, NOW WEALTHY RESIDENT OF CINCINNATI, IN TROUBLE

William F. Harrison, a former Utica man, having relatives and being well known all over Licking county, was arrested in Cincinnati by government inspectors, Thursday, on a charge of fraudulent use of the mails. Harrison is at the head of the World Manufacturing company and one of two kindred institutions whose methods have on previous occasions attracted the attention of governmental authorities.

Among the hundreds of complaints against the methods employed by Harrison's concerns are United States senators and congressmen. Governor Harrison, Mayor Schaub, of Cincinnati, and other prominent persons.

Harrison has engaged in Cincinnati for the past fifteen years. His principal concern was the World Manufacturing company, subsidiary firms being known as the R. Armstrong Manufacturing company, and dealing in the vacuum cleaner, and coming its name from one of his stenographers, Miss Rose Armstrong Gray and Company, handling a plating business, and the Harrison Manufacturing company, selling washing machines and some other things.

The charges brought against the Harrison organizations are to the effect that their advertising and mail matter was misrepresentative and misleading and that the company in frequent instances failed to keep its agreements.

Although Harrison has been the subject of governmental investigation on several occasions he was indicted and tried but once, that being in 1894. In that case he produced evidence, pleaded not guilty and was acquitted.

It is said that Harrison is fluent in conversation and able to appear, explain his transactions satisfactorily to investigators. He is said to have explained that his use of direct or indirect advertisements was a plan to keep the business of his various concerns separate.

William F. Harrison is the son of James Harrison, a farmer who lived just south of Martinsburg, and who died about ten years ago. Young Harrison attended the Martinsburg academy and went into business for himself, soon amassing quite a fortune. It is said that on several occasions he visited his father from Martinsburg, and that the Harrison farm near Martinsburg was a fine one.

Harrison was for several years in a store in Columbus when he left the store and went to New York City. The first business company was bought out a few months ago. It is said he was one of the heaviest stockholders.

He has been in the city for some time and was last seen there about two years ago. He came to the attention of some men connected with his father's estate. He is a brother of J. F. Harrison, who until recently operated a livery business in Utica for several years. He is also a brother-in-law of ex-Mayor David Bricker of Ohio.

The preliminary hearing of Harrison and Chappin, one of his associates in business, is set for Dec. 22, before U. S. Commissioner Adler in Cincinnati. They are at present at liberty under bonds of $2,500 each.

BEDOUINS WREAKED REVENGE

And Several Hundred At Joint Meeting of Hospital Trustees and Board of Managers

DEAD FILLED STREETS

And Flendish Tribesmen Spared Neither Women Nor Babies.

Jerusalem, via Constantinople, December 10.—In a series of bloody massacres by Bedouins at Kerak, a town in plain sight of the Holy City, but 30 miles across the Moab Valley, probably 200 Christians have been slain within the past 48 hours. The total number of dead will probably reach 500.

The last of the encounters, which were waged between bands of blood-thirsty roving tribesmen on the one hand and a mixed garrison of Turkish troops and Armenian residents on the other, raged all day yesterday, and at its conclusion the nomadic savages marched through a lane of bodies of their victims into the fortifications, which they are now holding.

The slaughter of the Christians, men, women and even babes in arms was wanton in the extreme, the fanatics falling on defenseless crowds, with their knives, slaughtering them merely as a matter of revenge for the execution by the sultan's troops of a Bedouin tribal chief about a month ago.

There has been the long series of atrocities of the past few years, brought to a crisis which only a heavy body of Turkish reinforcements can stop. The massacres of Kerak are the result of fighting that has been going on almost continuously for a year and a half.

According to trustworthy advices brought here by couriers last night, no American missionaries or teachers have been killed, the schools and other institutions of these people having been abandoned when the troubles were impending several months ago.

Kerak, a town in the Turkish vilayet of Syria, is the last settlement on the high road from Damascus to Mecca in which a Christian, according to the rules of the half-wild Moslems, may find an abode. It is the frontier of Christianity in those parts, and only the most zealous of missionaries have dared enter its low walls.

Here came native tribesmen to trade with the Moslems, themselves half wild, and in battle, driven to a frenzy of violence by the fatalism of their beliefs.

One British missionary, his wife and a native colporteur dwelt there, though the Turkish officials time and again had warned them of the impending danger. They are reported among the missing, and it is presumed they have been slain along with

DECIDED AGAINST CHARLTON

Secretary Knox Grants Request of Italy to Return Alleged Murderer

COURTS MUST DECIDE

Question of Sanity is Not One For Department to Pass Upon.

Washington, Dec. 10.—Secretary Knox has granted the request of Italy to surrender Porter Charlton, charged with the murder of his wife at Lake Como. The secretary holds that the fact that Italy refused to surrender her citizens to the United States for trial does not relieve this country from the obligation of the extradition treaty to surrender to Italy fugitives from justice from that country. The question of the insanity of Charlton, it is suggested, is one for the courts, and not for the state department to determine.

Had Secretary Knox refrained from acting on this case for six days Porter Charlton would have been a free man, as the statutes required final action in the case within sixty days from the date of his commitment. The secretary takes broad grounds in his opinion, holding that the mere fact that the Italian government declines to surrender its own citizens does not absolve the United States from full responsibility under the extradition treaty and in no way acts to abrogate that treaty.

The legal contention of counsel for the accused on that point and on the other point that the Italian demand for Charlton's surrender had not been made in strict accordance with the requirements of the treaty are swept away by the secretary's without basis and the committing magistrate's proceedings are found to have been regular in all respects. A closing remark by the secretary is of deep significance, carrying the plain intimation that Charlton's attorneys may have further recourse to the courts if they are disposed to raise the question of insanity.

In concluding his memorandum in the case, Secretary Knox says:

"In determining the meaning which, as a matter of public morals, ought to be given to an extradition treaty, it must be remembered that under our constitution and laws it is not possible to punish criminals in this country for crimes committed against the peace and dignity of foreign governments, and that, therefore, unless we surrender to such foreign governments for trial and punishment therein, our citizens committing crimes within the jurisdiction of such governments such citizens will go wholly unpunished by justice. Extradition treaties are negotiated and put into force and effect in order that persons committing crimes in one country and fleeing to another may be brought to justice, and to interpret an extradition treaty which under our constitution is the supreme law of the land, in a way that does violence to its obvious meaning and our consistent contention as to its meaning, so as to produce a precise situation which the treaty was designed to meet and correct, cannot be justified.

"Conceding for the prisoner also contends that Charlton should not now be surrendered because the committing magistrate refused to receive testimony tending to prove his insanity. If the magistrate erred in thus refusing such testimony, the prisoner has his remedy in the courts and it is not for the department at this stage of the proceedings to pass upon this question."

HAD CATARRH THIRTY YEARS.

EX-Congressman Meekison Gives Praise To Peru-na For His Relief From Catarrh.

EX-CONGRESSMAN MEEKISON COMMENDS PERU-NA.

"I have used several bottles of Peru-na and I feel greatly benefited thereby from my catarrh of the head. I feel encouraged to believe that if I use it a short time longer I will be fully able to eradicate the disease of thirty years' standing."—David Meekison.

OTHER REMARKABLE CASES.

Mr. Jacob L. Davis, Galena, Stone county, Mo., writes: "I have been in bad health for thirty-seven years, and after taking twelve bottles of your Peru-na I am cured." Mr. C. N. Peterson, 132 South Main St., Council Bluffs, Iowa, writes: "I cannot tell you how much good Peru-na has done me. Constant confinement in my store began to tell on my health, and I felt that I was gradually breaking down. I tried several remedies, but obtained no permanent relief until I took Peru-na. I felt better immediately, and five bottles restored me to complete health."

A SINCERE RECOMMENDATION.

Mr. D. C. Prosser, Allegan Co., Mich., writes: "Two years ago I was badly afflicted with catarrh of the stomach. I had had a run of typhoid fever, was very depleted. I could find nothing I could eat without causing distress and sour stomach. Finally I came to the conclusion that I had catarrh of the stomach and seeing Peru-na advertised, began to take it. It helped me, and after taking three or four bottles I was entirely cured of stomach trouble and can now eat anything."

That the Y. M. C. A. building is open Sunday afternoon from 1:30 to 5 o'clock is not generally known. While most men and boys who come find their way into the meeting, some quietly enjoy an hour or two of reading in the well stocked reading rooms. The program for the afternoon is as follows:

2 p. m., boys' meeting.
3 p. m., men's meeting.
4:15 p. m., Sunday Club, to discuss the "Social Significance of the Teachings of Jesus."

Every man picks from the afternoon's list the thing he wants and is made welcome.

Quiet often young men who are strangers in Newark find the meeting at the reading room a great comfort, for Sunday afternoon is the time when homesickness or loneliness get in the work.

Strangers staying in the city over Sunday often attend and are made welcome.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, it has a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by HALL'S CATARRH CURE. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c.

(6.) What was the significance of the dream of Mrs. Pilate?

(7.) How much dependence can we place in dreams in these days?

(8.) These chief Priests were more kindly disposed to a thief, and a murderer, than they were to a good man, whom they regarded as a heretic; how do you account for this?

(9.) Why have so called heretics in the past been treated so cruelly? How are they treated to-day?

(10.) What motives prompted Pilate's desire to release Jesus?

(11.) Verses 22-24—What ought Pilate to have done with Jesus, without asking his persecutors?

(12.) How much credit, if any, should be accorded to Pilate for saying Jesus was a just man, and for wanting to release him?

(13.) Verse 25—A few days before this the people gave Jesus a royal welcome to the city and shouted, "Hosanna to the son of David," how do you account for their now wanting him to be crucified?

(14.) How God verily held the Jews guilty of the murder of Jesus, and in what sense has his blood been on their heads?

(15.) Verses 26-28—How do you estimate the character of Pilate, who, knowing Jesus to be a just man, condemns him to death to please the people?

(16.) Verses 29-33—What was their purpose in putting a crown of thorns on Jesus' head, putting on him a scarlet robe, and putting a reed in his hands?

(17.) Why did Jesus submit to all these cruel insults?

(18.) When have followers of Jesus, since then, had to suffer similar insults, and cruelty, and do they ever have to endure anything similar to-day?

(19.) Verse 34—Did they give Jesus the vinegar mingled with gall, as an act of cruelty or mercy?

(20.) Did David know when he wrote Ps. cxlvi:18 which is quoted here in verse 35, that he was speaking of what was to happen to Jesus? Why or why not?

(21.) What was the method of crucifixion in those days.

(22.) Verses 39-42—If we were standing at the foot of the cross of Jesus, seeing him ebbing out his life's blood, ought we to be glad or sad? Why? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)

(23.) Were the inhabitants of heaven, and was God glad or sorry to witness the crucifixion of Jesus? Give your reasons.

(24.) Give your ideas, as to whether God would have preferred that the Jews should have accepted Jesus, and not crucified him?

(25.) Verses 43-50—Why, as in the case of Jesus, does God often allow us to suffer, to the full limit, the agonies of pain and sorrow?

(26.) Had God actually forsaken Jesus, or was this cry the result of his exquisite suffering?

WOULD DO A WAY WITH MIDDLEMAN

New York, Dec. 10.—Sir Horace Plunkett, president of the Agricultural Society of Ireland, is making a tour of this country to urge farmers to organize and do away with middlemen entirely. He formed the co-operative dairy movement in Ireland. He said today:

"Unless the American farmer will organize and distribute his own products there can be no reduction in the cost of living. The farmers are beginning to realize that their inaction has been more to blame for the high cost of living than the trusts. We are organizing on the other side and if the farmers do it here we can reduce the cost of living very materially, with increased profits to the farmer."

PARISIAN SAGE

This Great Hair Grower Now Sold All Over America.

What do you think of the liberal proposition that the Giroux Mfg. Co. of Buffalo, N. Y., American makers of Parisian Sage are putting up to the readers of the Advocate?

They know they are absolutely certain that they have the only real hair grower, beautifier and dandruff destroyer on the market today, and knowing this they have requested Evans' drug store to state to every reader of the Advocate and to every person living in Newark and vicinity that he guarantees Parisian Sage to remove every trace of dandruff; to stop falling hair and itching scalp, or money back.

And every one who reads this important announcement should know that Parisian Sage makes hair grow, not only abundantly, but gives it that lustrous appearance that all desire.

Women will find Parisian Sage the most refreshing and ideal hair dressing, free from stickiness or grease. Large bottle 50 cents at Evans' drug store, and druggists everywhere.

"I have used Parisian Sage for some time and think it has no equal as a hair beautifier and scalp cleanser. No more dandruff or faded hair. Thanks to Parisian Sage."—Mrs. William Hoglund, Sault Ste Marie, Mich., June 2, 1910.

OBITUARY

SAMUEL J. PHILLIPS.
Samuel J. Phillips, contractor, a life long resident of this county, widely known and respected, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Gilbert Barber, 341 North Tenth street, at 7 o'clock Saturday morning, following an illness that has extended over the greater part of the past year. Death was due to cancer of the stomach.

Mr. Phillips was born in this county nearly 65 years ago and was the son of the late Samuel G. Phillips, a well known early resident of the Welsh Hills community. He attended school at Granville and in his youth spent several years as a teacher, later engaging in the insurance business. In recent years he had been engaged in contract work, building many bridges in the county, and but a short time ago carrying out the contract for the municipal filtration plant here. The contract for this work was taken jointly with his brother-in-law, S. J. White.

Mr. Phillips was a veteran of the civil war, being an active member of Lemert Post, No. 71. He was a member of the Twenty-second regiment, O. V. V. I. The local G. A. R. post will participate in the funeral service, which will be held Monday forenoon at 9 o'clock at the Barber home on Tenth street, Rev. J. L. Wylie officiating. Interment in the Phillips family cemetery, Welsh Hills.

The deceased was a brother of the late Thomas Phillips, ex-prosecuting attorney of the county, whose death occurred about eight years ago. Another sister, Mrs. Laura McMillen, of Cincinnati, died a short time ago. Mrs. Phillips' death occurred about ten years ago.

Besides Mrs. Barber there remain the following children: Mrs. Samuel Wheeler, Mount Clair, N. J.; Mrs. Dan Jones, Springfield, O.; Philip Phillips, of Granville; Mrs. George Hottinger, of Granville; Mrs. Bertha Phillips, of Cincinnati; Samuel J. Thomas, W. Miss Winifred Martha Phillips, and Miss Edith Phillips, all of Granville. Mrs. S. J. White, 164 Ninth street, the G. A. R. Mrs. G. Frederick, Granville, and Mrs. David Jones of Fullerton, O., are sisters.

W. F. HADLEY.
W. F. Hadley, 76, father of F. G. Hadley, died at his home in Mansfield, Thursday. He is survived by a widow and one son. F. G. Hadley was a R. O. freight agent at Mansfield and Mt Vernon and is well known to Newark R. & O. men.

CHARLES T. JOHNSTON.
Word was received here Saturday morning that Charles T. Johnston, a well known cement contractor or this city, who was adjudged insane by Probate Judge Robbins Hunter, on Tuesday of this week, and sent to the State hospital for treatment, had died at that institution on Friday morning. The deceased, previous to coming to Newark several years ago had lived in Granville for sixteen years. He is survived by his widow and one adopted daughter, Goldie, also a sister, Mrs. Mary Jones of Granville. The body will be brought to Newark on Saturday.

A Clean Man

Outside cleanliness is less than half the battle. A man may scrub himself a dozen times a day, and still be unclean. Good health means cleanliness not only outside, but inside. It means a clean stomach, clean bowels, clean blood, a clean liver, and new, clean, healthy tissues. The man who is clean in this way will look it and act it. He will work with energy and thankless, clear, healthy thoughts.

He will never be troubled with liver, lung, stomach or blood disorders. Dyspepsia and indigestion originate in unclean stomachs. Blood diseases are found where there is unclean blood. Consumption and bronchitis mean unclean lungs.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

prevents these diseases. It makes a man's insides clean and healthy. It cleans the digestive organs, makes pure, clean blood, and cleans, healthy flesh.

It restores tone to the nervous system, and cures nervous exhaustion and prostration. It contains no alcohol or habit-forming drugs. Constipation is the most unclean uncleanliness. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure it. They never gripe. Easy to take as candy.

Noble Grand . . . Mrs. S. M. Draper
Vice Grand . . . Mrs. H. Blenhour
Rec. Secretary . . . Mrs. Mary Beir
Flu. Secretary . . . Kate Evans
Treasurer . . . Mrs. C. S. Garrettsou

One application for membership was received and there will be work and a good time at the next regular meeting.

Many little girls are attracted by the splendid array of dolls and holiday goods in the show windows of our merchants, and gather in groups to admire them. The mother instinct in their little hearts is expressed by every word they utter and every eager glance of their eyes.

The early shopping advocacy of your reporter has already had its effect upon the trade. The cars between Granville and Newark are now so crowded that standing room is at a premium. Many Granville people are having goods laid away which they will call for during Christmas week. The plan of having presents laid away is becoming quite popular and it will mean a saving of considerable time to the merchants.

Warren H. Roberts, of the class of '03, of Denison university, is farming in Alabama. Prof. Roberts, after his graduation in Denison, was enrolled in the classics department of Chicago university. He emphasized philology also. He now owns a farm in Alabama, near Mobile. Dr. C. Judson Herrick, of Chicago also owns a tract of land near Prof. Roberts'. The latter is Dr. Herrick's overseer. He reports great success in his new venture.

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U., held at the home of Mrs. Palmerton, Friday afternoon, was largely attended by the members of the union, and most profitable session was had.

George Bash, of this place, who is administrator of the estate of his father, Henry Bash, deceased, of Utica, was in Utica several days ago. He missed his train and had to stop over in Utica until the following morning. He had not learned of the recent change in the time card.

Mrs. Esther Hammond visited in Granville the forepart of the week the guest of her mother, Mrs. Agnes Johnson. Mrs. Johnson accompanied her home and made a short visit with her.

The members of the Beta Alpha Delta fraternity entertained at dinner Wednesday evening the following named young ladies: Misses Lemon, Gorn, Sefton, Tracy, Bryant, Critchfield, Abell, and White. The Beta Alpha Deltas have achieved quite a reputation as entertainers and it is always considered an honor to be entertained by them.

Regular Sunday services will be held at St. Luke's Episcopal church on Sunday at 10 o'clock a. m., and at 4 o'clock p. m., conducted by the rector, A. Ramsey. The subject for the morning sermon will be "The Kingdom of This World," and "The Kingdom of God." The afternoon theme will be "The Revelation and the Destruction of Evil." Sunday school at 11 a. m.

The price of eggs is getting so high that the children must expect smaller ones in their Christmas stockings.

23 men. Proper had a gun, but I don't know of any other that went to the Bismark who had a gun; four of our squad which went to Bolton's had guns, and Hennessy and Etherington, who went to Henry's." Excused.

William H. Proper of Cleveland, examined by Mr. Miller: "Am a secret service man for the Service Company of Cleveland; was in Newark July 8 to assist Marshal Evans of Granville to serve search and seizure warrants; I, with five men, went to the Bismark, read the warrant, locked the door, and within 10 or 15 minutes there was a crowd of probably 2000 people on the outside making threats to kill us or beat us up all the time we were in there; pretty soon the chief of police came in and stayed for a few minutes and then went away. He soon came back with five officers and placed us under arrest for assault and battery and we were taken in the patrol wagon to the city prison; the crowd yelled to 'Beat them up!'; 'Kill them!'; 'Put them out of business!' and remarks of that nature; a big crowd followed the patrol wagon to the prison, yelling 'Kill them!' continually; at the prison we were searched and everything taken from us; we were released about 11 o'clock that night; saw two loaded street cars; paid no attention to what the crowd said; went east through B. & O. yards to Black Hand, then back to Hanover and from there to Zanesville."

Cross-examined by Judge Littleford: "Have been in detective business about 12 years, in Chicago, Michigan and about a year and a half for the government, operating against a band of bandits in Porto Rico; enlisted as a soldier in the regular service and was detailed for that service; after enlistment had expired I came back to the United States; have done detective work in Chicago, Detroit and many smaller cities; very seldom had anything to do with strikes; was never a strike breaker, but took men into Pennsylvania; when there was a strike on to guard property against strikes; Etherington was there or had been, but not with me; I read the warrant in the Bismark and handcuffed the bartender; there were five men with me."

Five minutes recess.
Otto Treka of Cleveland, examined by Mr. Miller: "I have lived in Cleveland all my life, 25 years; am a polisher and buffer by trade and sometimes work at secret service work; was brought here last July by Mr. Fortwangler; got here about 9:30 a. m.; received instructions from Mr. Fortwangler to serve a warrant on Charles Henry; Etherington was with me; he was about 5 feet 10 inches tall, weighed 180 pounds and was 23 years of age; had known him for three months; went to Henry's; searched the place; nothing occurred particularly in Henry's; I left Etherington in Henry's and went to the Bismark, and was taken from there to the city prison; we were released about 11 o'clock that night and left the city."

Cross-examined by Judge Littleford: "Am a Bohemian; have been in Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Kentucky, the last named state on a visit; in Pennsylvania I was watching coal property, the men being on a strike; Etherington was there, but not at the same place; I have been arrested besides the time in Newark, at Newcastle, Pa., and once in Cleveland; have worked as a polisher and buffer in Cleveland and Cincinnati, Elizabeth, Pa., and other places, besides doing plumbing work and assisting my father in grade contracting; have worked for R. J. Coach Secret Service Company of Cleveland, Westmoreland Detective Company of Pennsylvania; went to Chicago in search of work." Excused.

Dr. L. L. Marriott, coroner, examined by Mr. Smythe: "Was called on July 8th last to hold autopsies on bodies of William Howard and Carl Etherington, about 11 o'clock at night. Came to Newark in answer to call from Howard's death and when I got to Newark I learned that Etherington was dead; I went to the jail; heard Etherington had been hanged; I went over to Smith's drug store, corner; found body lying in gutter; Dr. Shriver and Dr. W. J. Arch were with me; I called for an amoulance; the body was a dead body; I would say death was caused from strangulation; observed no wounds at the time I found him; but when he was taken to the morgue found contused wound over left eye, cut over right eye, several wounds on the scalp; stab wound near the jugular vein, only through the skin, and a vein of congestion around the neck where the rope had pressed. Drs. Barnes, Shriver and W. J. Arch assisted the post mortem examination; in my opinion he died of strangulation."

No cross examination.
Rev. Harry J. Holcomb, examined by Mr. Miller: "Am pastor of Elizabeth chapel, in West Newark; saw disturbances in the city on the morning of that day; came to town at 11 o'clock; paid a gas bill and noticed a crowd toward the square; went toward the square; saw crowd in front of Bismark; came on to edge of square, then went to south side of Main street, opposite the Bismark; crowd was rapidly gathering in front of the place; noticed parties trying to get in, but police were guarding the door; heard exclamations from crowd, such as 'Kill the detectives'; heard one man say 'I told you something like this would happen'; then went to B. & O. depot; came back to Newark about 5 o'clock that evening; saw several crowds, one in front of Bolton's place, talking excitedly, but distinguished nothing that was said; almost everybody was excited; boarded a street car and went home; came back to square about 7:30 o'clock; saw crowd down by jail; went that way and heard a colored man speaking."

Judge Littleford and Mr. Flory objected to a question asking Mr. Holcomb to state in substance what the colored man said regarding anybody in the jail. Objection sustained.
"After the colored man ceased, a white man spoke, then a second white man, and then the first white man again, and then the crowd moved toward the jail; I then heard some one shout, 'Get over the fence.' I went to the Panhandle station to see if troops had come, but they had not come; heard exclamations from a crowd of young men near the railroad crossing. 'Let's go in and get him!' coming back I saw several men running out of the west gate of the jail and heard one say, 'Let's get a rail,' and one answered, 'Yes, bring us the whole dam railroad.' Soon afterward I heard the sound of hammering against steel at the north of the jail; I went to the northwest corner of the jail and heard the hammering, but could not see the operatives, as the crowd was too dense. I heard shouts and curses from the crowd and there was confusion everywhere; there was a continual battering of the door; I noticed that no resistance was being offered; after the speaking of the three men and going to the Panhandle depot I met a colored man whom I took to be the man who had made the speech."

This answer was excluded.
"I recognized him by what he said; he was boasting about the speech he had made; he said that he had made a good speech, and he had other business to attend to and he had made his speech; after returning from the Panhandle station I started to the police station; I came back to the jail about 10 o'clock; the attack on the jail was still going on and I could hear hammering inside of the jail; could hear shouts and occasionally a volley of cheering; a little later I saw something afire thrown out of a jail window, and shortly after that I heard some one shout, 'We've got him.' The crowd started south, as I thought, but turned and passed me with the man, within five feet; I was trying to get out of the road; the crowd had got out of his arms and shoulders and pushing him ahead of them at his mouth open and a look of horror upon his face; the crowd passed me in perfect silence; saw no blows struck; there seemed to be six or eight men, or as many as could get their hands on him, had hold of the man, but there were probably seventy-five or a hundred trying to get to him; I then went to the north jail door, as I did not want to see the lynching, and I did not see it; I saw several policemen pulling a steel rail from out the jail corridor; I then went back north on Third street and saw the mob on the southeast corner of the public square; I looked across the mob and I saw the form of a man hanging against a telegraph pole; the crowd easily numbered 1500."

Cross-examined by Judge Little-ford: "When I saw the colored man the second time, it was 75 feet from where I had seen a colored man make a speech; he seemed to be wandering through the crowd; he said he had other business, but did not state what it was; I merely passed him and just heard this remark." Excused.

Judge Wm. Littleford returned to his home in Cincinnati to spend Sunday with his family. So has Judge Mansfield.

How a Creditor Nation Pays for Imports

By BENJAMIN KARR.

THE United Kingdom—Great Britain and Ireland—imports merchandise worth about a billion dollars more every year, than the British products exported. Sometimes the excess of imports averages $100,000,000 a month, for several months in succession.

How this immense difference in favor of those countries which sell to the British Isles more than they buy from them is balanced and settled is a mystery to many Americans accustomed to living where there is always an excess of exports, and yet gold goes out rather than comes in. The question is often asked how England keeps her gold, and how British wealth can increase instead of being lost like the fortune of a man who lives beyond his means.

The explanation is afforded, in large part, by a statement by the revenue service of the British government of the income derived by British investors from foreign and colonial securities. It appears that the known income amounts to about $150,000,000 a year, and it is probable that the government never discovers a good deal of this great source of British prosperity.

British shipping does much of the ocean-carrying trade of many countries, including the United States. It has nearly a monopoly of the maritime business of some big British colonies. From all parts of the world thousands of British ships bring home their earnings to help pay for the merchandise the British Isles import, in excess of that which they export by their exports.

London is the greatest international banking center of the world and British banks and bankers take their commission for handling an enormous volume of transactions which do not figure in the traffic of British ports. It is an important source of national income. Many millions of dollars flow into the British Isles every year from British subjects who are employed or in business in colonies or foreign lands. It is not home to be invested or held by bank, or it is given to relatives and friends or brought home and spent by the men—and women—who earn it.

Foreign visitors and residents in the United Kingdom spend more money than British subjects use in other countries. A great deal of British merchandise finds its way out of the country in the baggage of tourists and never figures in the statistics of foreign trade. Vast sums invested in foreign and colonial property by citizens of the United Kingdom are not taken out in dividends or rents, or in the profits of business, but reinvested to enlarge industrial or commercial plants or buy additional property. All this probably figures little in British income statistics.

In all of these ways and other foreign products than the British Isles balance by their sales of merchandise in foreign markets. It shows how a great surplus of imports may be canceled and leave the United Kingdom growing richer all the while, and always increasing its foreign and colonial investments.

Just by the Way

Mystery
Someone happened in our room
To me it might seem
I found Dad missing the chimney
Heard him say it's getting near
My zzzs got no time to play
Like she used to do
She's just shopping and she'll say
Won't let me go long too
From I wonder how my Daddy
Always looks the closet door
Never used to be so careful
Wonder what he does it for
He's got the grace and winks at me
Says "You better not get too smart"
And "Muzze," laugh as she can be
Says "I'll take your part."
As she comes to me and whispers
Blowing bubbles in my ear
"Remember the old man with the whiskers"
"Well, he's a coming, dear."

"The misss has gone to the dressmaker to try on a new dress. Thanks, I'm glad of that," answered she'd gone to pay for the last stairs for it now."

NEWARK WOMAN WRITES CHARMING LITTLE STORY

Miss Mac Moore, of 55 Seventh street, formerly for several years instructor in English literature and composition in the Newark high school, is the author of a charming short story entitled "Doctor Bob," which is just from the Advocate book publishing department.

The story, written in a delightful style, deals with the reclamation of the deep spiritual side of Dr. Robert Bascombe, the principal character, through the depth of religious devotion of a youthful patient. The features incidental to the man theme are handled by Miss Moore in an extremely appealing manner and will undoubtedly be read with great interest by her many friends and former pupils.

Miss Moore's story has been placed on sale at the Edmiston book store. The former Newark teacher is the author of a number of interesting compositions and bits of verse which have heretofore attracted the compliments of a large host of personal friends and admirers, but this is said to be her first venture in offering any of her products to the public in book form.

GOLDSBORO HEARD FROM

A Lady Who Lives in Goldsboro Joins in the Chorus of Praise for Cardui, The Woman's Tonic.

Goldsboro, N. C.—"A physician treated me for many distressing symptoms," writes Mrs. Etta A. Smith, "but gave me no relief."

"I suffered with neuralgia around the heart and was troubled at times with my head. I had pain in my left side, bowels, left thigh, shoulders and arms. After taking Cardui, I am now well and can recommend it to other suffering women."

Just such doubtful symptoms, as those from which Mrs. Smith suffered, are the ones for which it will pay you to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. It is at such times, when there is nothing to show, for certain, the real cause of the trouble, that you need a tonic, to give the body strength to throw off the illness that evidently threatens. Take Cardui, when you are ill, with the ailments of your sex. Take Cardui as a tonic, to prevent illness, when you feel it coming. Your druggist keeps it.

N. B.—Write for Ladies' Advisory Dept., Cardui, 111 West Main Street, Newark, N. J., for full instructions, and to get the book, "How to Use Cardui," sent in plain wrapper on request.

CURES BARBERS ITCH PROMPTLY

When All Else Fails Goodhair Soap
Cures Barbers' Itch.

Will you kindly send me a cake of your celebrated "Goodhair" soap, for which I am enclosing 25 cents in stamps. I have been sending to Dayton for the soap, as I have been unable to locate your products in any store in this city, and cannot do without it at any cost. I spent about $100.00 several years ago, trying to remedy "barbers' itch." Finally, as a last resort, I was persuaded to use your soap, which brought immediate results, as the small price thereof. I have recommended "Goodhair" to all my friends as "best ever" for shampoo and other skin diseases, but they also seemed to be unable to secure it here. Just gave the last cake away today to a friend, one of the many unfortunate who could not locate the product.

Yours respectfully,
WILFRED D. CALLAHAN,
1432 Broadway, N. Y. City, N. Y.

"Answering your inquiry of 20th instant, beg leave to state that I saw the young man afflicted with barbers' itch, and his face has all healed up; got relief from the first application of Goodhair soap, and has not used anything else since commencing on the soap."

Yours truly,
W. M. MELVILLE,
Lima, Ohio.
If your druggist will not supply you with Goodhair Soap, send 25c. to Goodhair Remedies Co., Newark, Ohio. Sample on request.

"THE SQUAW MAN"

Edwin Milton Royle is the author of that eminently successful drama, "The Squaw Man" in which William Faversham has been seen in all the principal cities of this country. "The Squaw Man" tells one of the most interesting incidents that hold the audience in stories of emotional intensity and delicate feeling; of a poor little Indian Squaw's desperate battle to keep her

"The Man of the Hour," George Broadhurst's great American play, is underlined as the attraction coming to the Auditorium theatre Saturday, December 17. The play is a charming picturesque story of American life, giving us a glimpse of the highest phases of life in the big cities. It tells an interesting story filled with incidents that hold the audience in breathless suspense. There are no dead moments in the play for comedy situations are bright and plenty, from

NEDDERMEYER'S CONCERT BAND.

The march with which the Sunday afternoon program is to open is entitled "National Corn Exposition" and is from the pen of the band director, Fred L. Neddermeyer. It is his best and many consider his best effort in the march line.

This music was played publicly for the first time only a week ago in Columbus and Newark will therefore get the second hearing of it. As its title suggests the march was written in honor of the coming national corn show which will be held in Columbus. Mr. Neddermeyer and his band have been engaged to furnish music for that occasion, which will bring leading agriculturists from all over the country to Columbus. This march will be a feature of the opening program of music.

"THE RED MILL"

"The Red Mill," the new comic opera which is to be seen here for the first time at the Auditorium theatre on Wednesday, December 14, certainly has been provided with all the elements of success. The music is by Victor Hubert, by far the best of the composers of light music in this country; the book is by Mr. Henry Blossom, who always writes clever dialogue, and the presenting company is, from all accounts, an exceptionally clever one. "The Red Mill" will be presented here after a season's run at the Knickerbocker theatre, New York City, which was followed by engagements of three months in Chicago and Boston.

The above is the excellent program prepared by Prof. Fred Neddermeyer, to be given by his band of 40 pieces at the concert Sunday afternoon at the Auditorium theatre.

The advance sale for the seats is very good and this new feature seems to have appealed to the people of Newark.

The Orpheum.

Manager Bassett announces that he has been a promoter of a very good show for next week. An extra attraction has been booked for the Arcade theatre, "The Rajah of Bhong," a musical, comic comedy with 19 people. Special scenery, pretty girls and funny comedians and plenty of good music. There will be several vaudeville acts introduced during the performance and he is sure to get the patrons of the Orpheum theatre. Orpheum scope always a feature film.

Notes from the New Theatre.

Mary Magdalene, to be presented by Liebler & Co. at the New Theatre under arrangement of The New Theatre directors, is based on the Biblical story of Mary of Magdala. Miss Olga Nethersole, the English actress, who is under contract with the Lieblers, will play the title role—a part she thinks is particularly adapted to her capabilities. The play is a story of a woman's life, from her childhood to her death. While the theme is not new to the drama, Mr. Liebler's handling of it as the poet has drawn his lines, and even to representing Lucius V. as the Roman general and ruler, is a new and interesting feature. The play will be given for the first week, "The Rajah of Bhong," the week of December 12th, "Secret Service" the

The Thunderbolt in London last year that The New Theatre's production is far superior to that of the English. This is made possible because of the fact that The New Theatre maintains a high-class repertoire company and is thus able to employ experienced character actors in the most as well as in the more important roles.

There is but little question but that The New Theatre's production of "The Blue Bird," now being presented at the Majestic Theatre, New York, will run throughout the entire season. Tickets are being sold several weeks in advance and capacity audiences are the rule. The play appeals to children as well as to grown-ups, and has become a fad.

Miss Olive Oliver, who was recently engaged as a member of The New Theatre Company of New York made her first metropolitan appearance with the organization on November 12 as Colonel Ponting's wife in "The Thunderbolt." A few days later she appeared as Mrs. Sinclair in "Besier" comedy. "Don't" She made a hit in both plays. She is also appearing as the Abbess in Maurice Maeterlinck's "Sister Beatrice."

William Gillette as Sherlock Holmes.

William Gillette makes his farewell appearance as Sherlock Holmes. The play has become so thoroughly his own that not even in England can any other actor successfully follow him in the part. With the best of positively the last eight performances of that play at the Empire Theatre, New York, Monday night, December 5th, Mr. Gillette's present farewell season in his best known plays is inevitably limited to four weeks. These four weeks will be devoted to final performances of the plays upon which his reputation as an actor and as a playwright depend. "Sherlock Holmes" was given for the first week, "The Rajah of Bhong," the week of December 12th, "Secret Service" the William Gillette's London success in "Sherlock Holmes" will stand as the most remarkable example of the way London's approval of an American play can have the effect of more than doubling the popularity of that play for a subsequent tour in America. Collier's Weekly, a publication whose editorial columns are usually devoted to the high class and serious closes an editorial squib this week with the following:

A secondary reason has added to the vindictiveness of Sherlock Holmes. He has been clothed in the flesh for thousands by William Gillette. No part was ever done better by this original actor. It is one of the historic achievements of our time. The country now again welcomes Sherlock Holmes as only Gillette can play him.

Theatrical Notes.

Liebler and Company have arranged for the appearance of Dustin Farnum in "The Silent Call," by Edwin Milton Royle. Rehearsals will commence immediately. Farnum is now playing in "Tamco Kirby."

Blanche Bates opened her new play recently at the Euclid Avenue theatre in Cleveland when she appeared in "Nobody's Widow."

Mr. Harry Fulton, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Fulton, is advancing the Dillingham shows and is this year in advance of Montgomery and Stone in "The Old Town."

William Collier is appearing in a truly Collier play, light hearted and breezy, "I'll Be Hanged if I Do," at the Comedy theatre in New York.

Richard Thompson, who has been chief electrician with the big Edison musical extravaganza, "The Cow and the Moon," on its tour to the Pacific coast, arrived home Friday morning and will immediately take charge of the machines and electrical work for the Bijou management. Mr. Thompson closed with the show Wednesday morning in Oklahoma City, Okla. The organization is now working back east with "one-nighters."

Miss Maggie Holloway Fisher, who plays Mrs. Graham in the Chicago company of "The Commuters," was in the original production of "Man kind," an English melodrama, by George Conquest and Paul Merritt, when it was produced at the Boston theatre, on August 6, 1888.

Mrs. Nellie McHenry, mother of Jack Webster, who is appearing in the touring company of "The Country Boy," played Lucy in the all-star cast of "The Rivals." The company included Joseph Jefferson, Thomas Keane, Mrs. John Drew, William H. Crane, Nat Goodwin and Henry Miller.

When Henry B. Harris takes possession of the Hackett theatre, New York, on the first of next April, at the termination of the present lease, alterations will be made to conform with the widening of Forty-second street. Mr. Harris will, with the assumption of the theatre, rename it the Comique. The initial attraction under the new regime will be Rose Stahl in Charles Klein's new play, "Maggie Pepper."

Adeline Genee, who is making her farewell appearance in "The Bachelor Belles," will make her appearance upon her return to Europe at the home of Countess de Bearn, at the Rue Dominique in Paris. She will dance in the splendid private theatre owned by the countess.

Announcement is made by Charles Dillingham of the production of three plays without music. One is by David Higgins, another by Miss Anne Caldwell and the third is by Eugene Walter. Mr. Walter's is called "Homeward Bound," and the following have already been engaged for the cast: Miss Charlotte Walker, Miss Amy Butler, John Westley and William Harigan.

After the first performance of Leo Fall's "Fair Rissette" in Vienna last week, Mr. Frohman's agent cabled him: "Phenomenal success; delightful book; champagne music." Mr. Frohman bought the American right the next day and the piece will be produced late this season in America.

Another Schubert play has been taken off. Wilton Lackaye in "The Battle" is the one, and the players were suddenly told while playing in the south, that they would return to New York the next week. Fritz Scheff, too, in "The Mikado" will come to a close this week.

E. V. Backus, who plays Mr. Applebee in "The Commuters," was in the original production of Jules Verne's spectacular drama, "The Voyage in South Seas" when it had its first production on any stage at the Boston theatre, Tuesday, October 26, 1886.

Mr. Frazer Coulter who plays Howard Jeffers, Sr. in "The Third Degree," was in the original production of "Free Pardon," when it was produced at the Boston theatre, on August 14, 1882. This play was acted in England under the name of "Queen's Evidence."

A. A. Eberle, who plays Dr. Bornstein in Henry B. Harris' production of the "Third Degree," was in the original American production of "Youth," which had its premiere in Boston on September 19, 1882, at the Boston theatre. This was the first military play in which a Gatling gun was used on the stage.

A YOUNG MAN'S CHRISTMAS. Some people find that a fine gift for a young man or boy is a year's membership in the Y. M. C. A. The Newark "Y" is issuing such tickets now.

COW CHEWED UP VALUABLE OIL LEASE

The case of P. A. DeCrow against the Perryton Oil and Gas Company will be taken to the supreme court by the plaintiff. The suit is brought to obtain the cancellation of a gas lease. A lease of the right to drill for gas was drafted for execution some time ago and assigned. The lease was left with J. T. Price for the purpose of being acknowledged. While in the possession of the justice, and in his car pocket, the coat having been hung up in the barn, a cow got hold of the lease and chewed it up. A new lease was prepared and signed, but DeCrow claims that certain terms of conditions were embodied in the second lease of which he had no notice nor knowledge and that the execution of the same was not his voluntary act and for which reason he claims it should be cancelled.

WONDERFUL SPRINT OF BICYCLE TEAM

New York, Dec. 10.—In a burst of speed which has never been equalled in any other race here, the Ritt-Clark team today has gained the three laps which separated them from the leaders and with Hehr-Gouliett, Root-Moran and Foster-Hill are still tied for first place at 2321 miles. Three other teams are still hanging on, two and three laps behind, respectively. Although they have been going around the track for 12 hours, Ritt and Clark began a series of sprints early this morning and kept them up until they were tied with the leaders. Their sprints today seem to show that they are the best bet for the victory, as they have strength in reserve.

A GOOD COMPLEXION ADDS CHARM TO ANY WOMAN.

Seaver's Laxative Tonic Tablets Will Produce Good Complexions.

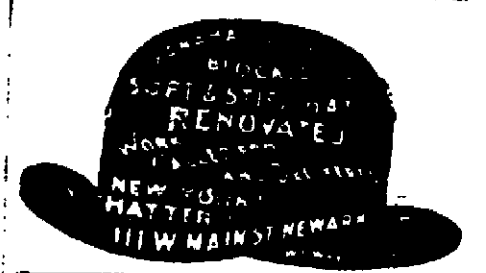

Among the many charms for which women are especially noted, not one of them is so quickly recognized and admired as a good complexion.

Every woman, regardless of the station she may occupy in society, owes it to herself as well as her associates to properly safeguard the beauties with which nature has endowed her.

The inactivity of the liver and bowels is the direct cause of pimples, sallowness, muddy skin and the many other blemishes common to a poor complexion.

Seaver's Laxative Tonic Tablets are largely composed of dandelion, and any physician will tell you there is nothing better to create a healthy condition of the skin and complexion. A 25-cent package of these tablets contains enough of the remedy for a fair trial and your money will be cheerfully returned by Erman & Son if you are not greatly benefited by their use.

Do not delay but give Seaver's Laxative Tonic Tablets a fair trial and you will agree that all our claims are absolutely true.
